

Information for applicant - Please Read This First

Thank you for considering the Grand River CHC for your health & wellness needs. The following will answer many of the common questions we receive about intake and our Centre.

GRAND RIVER COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTRE

We believe everyone matters. We provide primary health care services, nutrition services, social work and counselling, health & wellness programs, specialized programs such as Caring for My COPD and Memory Clinics, outreach programs such as Migrant Farm Worker programs, and we participate in a variety of community partnerships and initiatives.

PAIN MANAGEMENT AND NARCOTICS

We do not have the capacity at this time to provide primary health care for individuals requiring narcotics as part of their regular care.

CLIENT RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES

Please read the Client Rights & Responsibilities. If you have any questions or concerns about these rights & responsibilities, please contact our Director of Primary Care and Community Health at extension 255.

Client Rights and Responsibilities

Client Rights

Staff, students and volunteers work as a team to ensure client needs are met. This is accomplished by respecting the "client rights."

A client of GRCHC has the right to:

- Be treated in a considerate and respectful manner, where uniqueness is valued, and consideration is given to the client as a whole person.
- A clean, comfortable, scent free, safe and secure environment
- Receive quality services that comply with health care standards
- Make a formal compliment or complaint about care
- Bring a support person to any appointment
- Have personal health information treated in confidence and used in a way that respects individuals' wishes
- Be advised, in non-clinical terms, of information necessary to give informed consent or refusal to the proposed plan of care, including known risks, alternatives, and cost implications, if any
- Consent to treatment or be informed of the consequences of refusal

Client Responsibilities

Staff, students, and volunteers commit to working in partnership with clients. Clients are in turn expected to uphold certain responsibilities.

A client of GRCHC is responsible to:

- Keep appointments, or to cancel appointments in a timely fashion (24 hrs. notice)
- Arrive at appointments on time
- Act in a considerate, respectful and non-threatening, non aggressive manner towards staff, other clients, and individuals at the Centre
- Inform the Centre of changes in contact information, as an example your address and phone number and contact information of another person if we are unable to reach you.
- Refrain from being under the influence of alcohol or illegal substances (drugs) when visiting the Centre
- Disclose information necessary for care, including the use of outside health care providers
- Follow mutually agreed upon treatment plans or let the Centre know if no longer following the treatment plan
- Attend to personal hygiene appropriate for assessments and treatments prior to coming to the Centre, including providing information about possible bed bugs.
- Use prescriptions and or medical devices as prescribed

We are committed to providing a safe, healthy, secure and respectful environment through the prevention of disruptive behaviours.

GRCHC has ZERO TOLERANCE for:

- Loud and/or abusive language
- Threat towards anyone
- Violence/aggression in any form
- Illegal use of drugs
- Use of alcohol and/or intoxication
- Possession of weapons

Any of the above will result in any of the following:

- asking the offending person to leave the building
- calling the police
- taking legal action

Thank you for your cooperation.

We are collecting social information from clients to find out what unique needs our clients have. We will also use this information to understand client experiences and outcomes.
